Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Lydia Zoller has devoted much of her lifetime to helping and serving others; and,

WHEREAS, Lydia has been a devoted wife and mother exemplifying Christian motherhood as she raised one daughter, Ella, and two sons, Richard and Paul; and,

WHEREAS, Many young people received their early Christian education under the faithful tutoring of Lydia during her many years of Sunday School teaching; and,

WHEREAS, Lydia served the parish of Immanuel Lutheran Church of Harrold, South Dakota, in various capacities for a great number of years; and,

WHEREAS, Much love went in each stitch as Lydia sewed, crocheted, and quilted for her family and friends; and,

WHEREAS, The fruits of Lydia's love of gardening were shared with her many friends and neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, Lydia Zoller, although confined to a wheelchair in the Highmore Nursing Home, continues to be of service to others by helping in the laundry department; and,

WHEREAS, Lydia will celebrate her 86th birthday on July 14:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 14, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
